

Press Release
For Immediate Release
July 30, 2008

Documentary Film about Jimmy & Rita Breaux to be Screened in Baton Rouge, LA

A documentary film named "Dirty Politics" based on the life of Louisiana native and presidential candidate Jimmy Breaux will be screened in Baton Rouge, LA on Saturday, August 16, 2008 at the Manship Theater in Baton Rouge.

There will be a 7:00 pm and 9:00 pm screening of the film with some seats open to the public. Tickets can be purchased at www.manshiptheatre.org,

Senator Breaux's bid for the candidacy came as an answer to local constituents who have expressed repeated concern with current presidential candidates being promoted for the nation's most important political position.

For more information about Jimmy Breaux's presidential campaign or the film screening, log on to www.dirtypolitics2008.com.

Jimmy Breaux for President
www.dirtypolitics2008.com

